

Lacemaking Retreat at Gartmore House

Our 18th century country house is located in the Loch Lomond and Trossachs National Park Scotland, with views that stretch 25 miles across to Stirling Castle and the Wallace Monument. Our unique location makes our retreat the perfect getaway from busy life and the Gartmore House team will make sure you don't have to worry about anything at all.

Our professional lacemaking tutor, Jean, will teach Torchon, Bucks Point and Bedfordshire lace to advanced level, but can also cover the basics of other laces including Honiton, Bruges, and Milanese together with needlelace and tatting. She is also an expert in lace identification and history of lace, for those interested in a deeper understanding of the topic.

The special price of £299 includes home cooked food (full board), magnificent accommodation (single, ensuite), professional teaching, transport from Stirling and cruise on Loch Katrine.
